Celebrating our 90th Anniversary

To: The Bowlers, Proprietors and Board of the Lorain USBC BA

News of monumental proportions opens the 2014-15 Bowling Season...First the LBA welcomes Grafton Bowling Center as our newest member. Designated as a first of its kind transfer by the USBC, Grafton a former member of a merged association was given permission to join the LBA and our sister organization the LWBA. On behalf of our members and proprietor partners' I would like to welcome Grafton Bowlers to the LBA!

Keeping with record-breaking news, I am pleased to announce that last year our association continued to show growth in membership, now with over 1,400 members, the LBA's future is strong. Continued growth in tournament participation was another highlight from last season. Our five tournaments experienced participation growth and last season the LBA awarded more prizes, more prize money and more promotions than ever. Our Hall of Fame at the Amherst Eagles hosted over 220 guests celebrating our six new members and the accomplishments of our bowlers.

The LBA garnered more sponsors and sponsor support than ever last season. Do you see a trend; yes... the LBA Works and works for and on behalf of YOU, our members. However, we are most proud of your continued support and our sponsor's support of our Charitable endeavors. Last year the LBA provided $1000 in youth scholarship funds. We collaborated with the women's association and donated over $3000 to veterans' services in support of the Sandusky Soldiers and Sailors Home and Lorain's Valor Home. Helping young adults and special needs children was high on our list as well with LBA sponsorship support of Special Olympics and Camp Imagine.

In closing, I would like to recognize the efforts of our LBA board members and Mark Zakrajsek Association Manager for their dedication and hard work. In addition to LBA events, our board members have actively participated in many tournaments and promotions aside from our sanctioned events including the Jerry Super Bowl, Baldo Bash, Dom Rebman's Presidents Bowl, PBA qualifier at Lake Erie, Nautical Lane's Throwback Thursday and PBA Central Regional. To our proprietors and sponsors thank you for your continued support and efforts in support of our bowlers and our sport. To all have a great 2014-15 Season!
